

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE TO THE FIFTH EDITION

THE Editor desires to call attention to certain features in which the present edition of the Register differs from its predecessors.

The inevitable tendency of the book will be to increase in bulk, until it becomes possible, as in the case of older schools, to begin at a date subsequent to the founding of the School. The normal annual increase is about ten pages. But the growth of the last five years is abnormal, owing chiefly to the South African War, in which near five hundred Marlburians took part. Besides this a considerably larger number of addresses has been obtained than in previous editions. It has been possible to meet this increase in matter by certain condensations and omissions, but these have not counterbalanced the additions.

The Editor has made no alterations without consulting and obtaining the approval of the College authorities, and of Old Marlburians of special experience in their several departments.

Attention is called to the following points:—In the case of the Army (1) the first and the highest commissions only are given, after these come special appointments and distinctions; (2) the war record is set forth, taken, with a certain amount of condensation, from the quarterly Official Army List. The Editor wishes to express his great obligations to Colonel Spencer Ewart, O.M., C.B., of the War Office, and his secretary, Captain Perry.

A similar arrangement has been followed in the case of naval officers.

With regard to other professions analogous condensations have been made. The curacies of Vicars and Rectors have been omitted, a suggestion due to the Bishop of Richmond, O.M.

It is hoped and believed that no details of importance have been omitted, while many have been added.

The following additions have been made:—(1) The letters O.M. after the names of Old Marlburian parents; (2) a short sketch of the History of the College; (3) lists, in the Appendix, of University full 'Blues' and 'Internationals.'

Where a boy left quite young, and went to another school, it is evident that the credit of his career cannot be claimed by Marlborough. In such cases (e.g. p. 22, Blayds) the rule has been to insert very brief notices, just sufficient for identification.

The proofs have been corrected by the Editor, the Bursar, and S. T. Fisher, Secretary of the Marlburian Club. The Editor desires to record his special obligations to certain O.M.'s: S. T. Fisher, whom he has consulted, and by whom he has been helped throughout; F. W. Dunston, who carefully read through the fourth edition, correcting many errors, supplying many particulars, and suggesting many questions; H. F. Evans, who has revised the I.C.S. records; and G. B. Routledge, who has gone through every other school register procurable, with a view to ascertaining to what other schools boys went who left Marlborough young, and the Oxford and Cambridge Calendars in order that degrees might be correctly recorded. J. J. Hammond and G. E. W. Money also have furnished many particulars from time to time. The Editor has corresponded with several hundred O.M.'s, and received assistance and sympathy on all sides.

Each new edition ought to show some improvement on its predecessors, but such improvement is built on the labours of previous editors, among whom the original projector, the Rev. G. W. de Lisle, must hold the foremost place. No one can be so conscious as the present Editor of still existing imperfections and deficiencies, which can only be remedied by the hearty co-operation of Marlburians, all the world over, in pointing out errors and supplying information.

September, 1905.

A SKETCH OF THE HISTORY OF MARLBOROUGH COLLEGE¹

THE idea of providing a public boarding school education chiefly for the sons of clergymen at a moderate cost originated with the Rev. C. E. Plater, and was warmly taken up by a committee of gentlemen in London. A suitable site was offered, and Marlborough College was founded in 1843.

A Charter dated August 21, 1845, established the College as a Corporation by the title of 'The Governors of Marlborough College.' The Archbishop of Canterbury was to be the Visitor; the management was entrusted to a Council consisting of the Bishop of the Diocese (Salisbury) as President, twelve clergymen, and thirteen laymen appointed by the Life Governors. A Life Governor was one who on payment of a certain sum acquired the right to nominate during his life-time one pupil at the College. The number of pupils who were sons of laymen was limited to one-third of the whole number, the yearly charges for these being higher than for sons of clergymen. This proportion and these numbers were subsequently altered at different times, until in 1871 all limitations with regard to the sons of laymen, and all differences of charges, were abolished. With a view, however, to maintaining the original object of the College, seventy-four 'Foundation Scholarships' were established, open only to the sons of clergymen. The Charter of 1845 was further extended in 1853.

The site chosen was the Castle Inn at Marlborough on the old coaching road from London to Bath, which since 1752 until the opening of the Great Western Railway, had been one of the most famous of English hostelries. Before this it had been the seat of the Seymours, built in the seventeenth century, it is said, by Webb, a pupil of Inigo Jones. It appears to have taken the place of an earlier 'mansion' erected when the castle, shortly to be spoken of, was dismantled at the beginning of the sixteenth century. The Bowling Green, the Masters' Garden, and the Spiral walks which climb the Mount, belong to the Seymour period. On the death of the last Duke of Somerset of the Protector's line the house was turned into an Inn. After a brief change of ownership it passed, together with the rest of the property, into the possession of the Ailesbury Bruces, who never resided in it. From the then Marquess of Ailesbury the Governors obtained a lease of the house and grounds.

REV. MATTHEW WILKINSON, D.D., MASTER, 1843-52.

The College was opened August 20, 1843, under the Hostel System, with 202 boys. The first Master was the Rev. Matthew Wilkinson, D.D., Fellow of Clare College, Cambridge. The number of pupils rose rapidly, until in 1848 it reached a total of 500. Large additions to the buildings were required to meet this increase. The Old House had been adapted (1844); and in succession were built the Junior House ('A' House), the Dining Hall, the Master's House (subsequently enlarged) in 1845; the New House ('B' House), the Upper School, and the Chapel were erected about the same time (1848). In this last year the Adderley Library was founded by Mr. F. Alleyne McGeachy, one of the most munificent of benefactors. Owing to this large outlay, and to increased cost of management, a heavy debt was incurred, in consequence of which, combined with other circumstances, the prosperity of the school received a temporary check. Dr. Wilkinson, who had served the school with great devotion, resigned in 1852. A perusal of the Register during this period will show how distinguished a succession of pupils he sent out from Marlborough. Among his Assistant Masters may be noticed the name of one of the greatest of English scholars, the Rev. John Eyton Bickersteth Mayor (1849-53). Dr. Wilkinson died March 4, 1876, as Vicar of Melksham.

REV. G. E. L. COTTON, D.D., MASTER, 1852-8.

Dr. Wilkinson was succeeded by the Rev. G. E. L. Cotton, Assistant Master of Rugby. It would be difficult to overestimate the services which he rendered to the school. The importance of entrusting a large portion of the discipline to responsible Prefects had not hitherto been fully recognized. Dr. Cotton, who had served at Rugby under Arnold, by introducing the prefectual system, stamped on Marlborough the true character of a public school. He was much aided in his work by several old Rugbeians whom he appointed Assistant Masters. In grappling successfully with the financial difficulties the services of the Bursar, Mr. Henry Tomkinson, were invaluable to the College. The Modern School was established in 1854, under the guidance of the Rev. J. Franck Bright, the present Master of University College, Oxford. Dr. Cotton was appointed Bishop of Calcutta in 1858. His death by drowning in the Hooghly, Oct. 6, 1866, was felt to be an irreparable loss both to England and to India.

REV. G. G. BRADLEY, M.A., Master, 1858-70.

The third Master was the Rev. G. G. Bradley, Assistant Master at Rugby. The brilliant successes of Marlborough at the universities and elsewhere almost immediately after Mr. Bradley's arrival and throughout his mastership are matter of the public school history of the period. Improvements in educational methods and material additions were constantly being made. Lectures on scientific subjects were given. The Natural History Society, the first of its kind in English schools, destined to play an important part in the life and education of the school, was founded by the Rev. T. A. Preston.

A SKETCH OF THE HISTORY OF MARLBOROUGH COLLEGE ix

The Rifle Corps was established in 1860. The Chapel was decorated. A Gymnasium was fitted up. The Sanatorium (subsequently twice enlarged) was built in 1860, and the Sick House in 1865. In 1861 a new departure from the Hostel system of the College was made by the opening of Freshute House under Mr. Bright. More important still were the steps taken to acquire the freehold of the buildings and the land, negotiations which took effect in 1871. One or two serious outbreaks of scarlatina towards the end of this period pointed to certain defects, among them to the overcrowding of dormitoria. This was to be remedied by the erection of two large outboarding houses, which were opened in 1872 under the names of Littlefield and Cotton House. At the end of 1870, after an ever memorable career as Master of Marlborough, Mr. Bradley was appointed Master of University College, Oxford. In 1881 he succeeded his old friend A. P. Stanley as Dean of Westminster. He resigned this post after the Coronation of King Edward VII, and died March 13, 1903.

REV. F. W. FARRAR, D.D., MASTER, 1871-6.

The fourth Master was the Rev. F. W. Farrar, Assistant Master of Harrow, who had been Assistant Master of Marlborough under Dr. Cotton. The prosperity and progress of the school were continued to the full, and further developed during the five and a half years of his mastership. A great stimulus was given to the life of the place in all its departments, and many amenities were introduced. Systematic science teaching was recognized by the appointment of a special master; a Chemical Laboratory and Lecture Room were fitted up. The 'Bradleian,' a hall in commemoration of Mr. Bradley, designed by Mr. G. E. Street, R.A., was opened in 1873. The Chapel was further decorated. A new Cricket Pavilion, the gift of Mr. Arthur Robinson, O.M., was built in 1874. In 1876 Dr. Farrar was appointed Canon of Westminster, and Rector of St. Margaret's, Westminster. In 1895 he became Dean of Canterbury, where he died March 22, 1903. His life has been written by his son, Dr. Reginald A. Farrar, O.M. The Life of Christ was written while Dr. Farrar was Master of Marlborough.

REV. G. C. BELL, M.A., MASTER, 1876-1903.

Dr. Farrar was followed by the Rev. G. C. Bell, Head Master of Christ's Hospital. Solid and uninterrupted progress characterized the twenty-seven years of his administration. Fresh educational demands received prompt attention. The teaching of science was organized on a greater scale; a Physical Laboratory was built in 1893, a Chemical Laboratory in 1895. Mathematical teaching also was further developed. A carefully thought out scheme for an Army Class was carried into effect under the guidance of Mr. H. D. Drury. The result of these measures has been seen in the Science and Mathematical Scholarships won at the Universities, and in the conspicuous successes gained at Woolwich and Sandhurst. A Music Room, the gift of Marlburian parents, was partly built in 1895-6. Its present inchoate condition cries aloud for completion. An Orchestral Society was established.

x A SKETCH OF THE HISTORY OF MARLBOROUGH COLLEGE

Great additions were made to the teaching accommodation. The block of buildings between the Bradleian and 'B' House was erected in 1883, comprising Class Rooms and a Museum arranged, catalogued, and largely contributed to by the Rev. T. A. Preston, Assistant Master. The Class Rooms to the north of the Court were put up in 1893. The Jubilee of the College was celebrated with great enthusiasm in 1893. In 1899 the Reading Room, part of the Jubilee gift of old Marlburians, designed by Mr. Bodley, R.A., who since 1886 has acted as the College Architect, was opened by the Bishop. It has amply supplied a long-felt want. The comforts of the staff and of the whole establishment were considered in the erection of new Domestic Offices (1892), and a new Kitchen (1902). Attention meanwhile was paid to the requirements of games. A Racquet Court, the munificent gift of Mr. A. H. Beesly, Assistant Master, was built in 1881; a second Court, part of the Jubilee gift of Old Marlburians, in 1895. Six new Fives Courts were erected in the field, near the Racquet Courts, in 1892. The Cricket Pavilion was enlarged at the charge of Mr. Mann, father of a Marlburian. Since 1899 the playing-field has been enlarged by the freehold purchase of twenty-seven additional acres (Broadleaze). This scheme was rendered possible by the initial generosity of Mr. Herbert Leaf, Assistant Master, Mr. Walter Leaf, his brother, Mrs. Leaf, their mother, and a friend. It was carried out to completion by the action of the Council, and the contributions of the Marlburian Club. Part of the ground is now being levelled. And last, but not least, the old Chapel having become quite inadequate to the numbers of the school, the stately present Chapel, designed by Messrs. Bodley and Garner, was consecrated by the Bishop of Salisbury in 1886. New duties and new interests were recognized. The Marlburian Mission in Tottenham was founded in 1881. The zeal of the Missioner, the Rev. E. F. Noel Smith, O.M., and his fellow labourers has made it a centre of Christian civilization. Since then further mission work has been undertaken at New Swindon. A great impulse to corporate patriotism was given by the establishment of the Marlborough Club in 1884; later on it was amalgamated with the old Marlborough Nomads Football Club (1868), and the Marlborough Blues Cricket Club (1882). As a result of this amalgamation the Club now numbers about 2,000 members. No account of the College should pass unnoticed the death, in 1886, of Dr. Fergus, who had served the College with singular devotion as medical officer for thirty-seven years, and in 1897 of the Rev. J. S. Thomas, O.M., who for a like period had been Bursar, and the right-hand man of three successive Masters, both universally respected and beloved. Mr. Bell resigned in 1903. He has since been appointed Rector of St. Michael's, Cornhill.

MR. FRANK FLETCHER, M.A., MASTER, 1903.

On Mr. Bell's retirement the Council appointed as his successor the present Master, Mr. Frank Fletcher, Assistant Master of Rugby.

DEATH OF MR. E. SIEVEKING.

Mr. Herbert Edward Sieveking, M.R.C.S., whose death is announced at the age of 70, was a link with Cecil Rhodes and the early days of the British South Africa Company. He was the third son of Sir Edward Sieveking, the eminent physician, and elder brother of Mr. F. Sieveking, the authority on fencing and gardening. He was born on April 19, 1853. From Elstree he went on to Marlborough College, and after a period at Hanover became a student of St. Mary's Hospital, London. Having qualified as M.R.C.S., and later as L.R.C.P., he held several resident appointments at St. Mary's. He then went to Cairo as surgeon to the Victoria Hospital there. Afterwards he became medical officer of the Cape Government Railway Service and of the hospital at Fourteen Streams.

Having been appointed medical officer of the British South Africa Company's Police (Rhodes's Pioneers) and of the base hospital at Tuli, he had the honour of raising the first flag of the Chartered Company on the Hospital Hill, Fort Tuli, on November 12, 1891, "to welcome Mr. Cecil Rhodes on his first visit to the country saved for the Empire by his sole efforts." This flag was accepted in 1909 by the Provost and Fellows of Oriel, Rhodes's college at Oxford. Mr. Sieveking had received the bronze medal of the Royal Humane Society for an act of gallantry; also the Order of the Medjidieh from the Khedive, Tewfik. In 1908-9 he settled the exact site of Tyburn, and discovered the only relic, the former being marked and the latter erected by the L.C.C. at the south and north ends respectively of the Edgware-road. Mr. Sieveking was a contributor both to the medical and to the lay Press.

THE REV. H. J. S. WOOD.

The death has occurred of the Rev. Herbert John Stanley Wood, who for many years did a remarkable work in one of the most squalid districts of Liverpool. Educated at Marlborough, Mr. Wood, who was a son of Canon Peter Wood, of Newent, Gloucestershire, went to Trinity, Cambridge, where he took an ordinary degree. After his ordination he was a missionary in London, then curate under Canon Wilberforce at Southampton, and later chaplain to the Farnley Iron Works, Leeds. He went to Liverpool about 40 years ago as the result of studying a series of articles on "Squalid Liverpool," and founded what is known as the Mission of Love, which was never known to turn any distressed person away. On occasions, for he lived over the mission hall, he shared his room with a tramp. In 1915, after spending a year in Japan with the Japan Evangelistic Band, he withdrew from his work in Liverpool in order to devote himself to conventions and kindred gatherings.

Rector of Dorneyfield Hants.

His Honour Judge Frederic Michael Coleridge Mackarness died in London on Thursday night after a few days' illness, at the age of 66. The second son of a former Bishop of Oxford—the Right Rev. Dr. John F. Mackarness—he was educated at Marlborough and Keble College, Oxford, where he took his B.A. and proceeded to M.A. He was called to the Bar at the Middle Temple in 1879, and three years later was appointed Advocate of the Supreme Court of Cape Colony. Returning to England a few years later, he became Revising Barrister for London in 1889, and five years afterwards was appointed Recorder of Newbury. He held the Recordership for ten years, resigning the post to become Professor of Roman-Dutch Law in the University College, London. A period of Parliamentary life followed, Mr. Mackarness representing the South Berkshire Division in the Liberal interest from 1906 to 1910. His appointment as a County Court Judge came in 1912, and he had since presided over the Sussex circuit.

News has been received in Durham of the death at Hove, Sussex, of Sir Henry Clark King, formerly a Commissioner of the High Court of Madras. Sir Henry was a son of the late Rev. C. W. King, H.M. Inspector of Schools, and the late Mrs. King, of South Street, Durham. He was educated at Durham School and Marlborough, and after a legal training at Leamington went to India in 1880 as assistant to Messrs. Tasker and Wilson, solicitors, Madras. Afterwards he was senior partner of the firm of King and Josselyn, and he was one of the three secretaries appointed by the Presidency of Madras in connection with the visit of the Prince and Princess of Wales to Madras in 1906. In recognition of his services on that occasion he was knighted. Sir Henry leaves a widow (the eldest daughter of Mr. G. Alderson Smith, of Westcroft, Scarborough), a son, and two daughters. He was 63 years of age.

NEW TYPE OF GOODS ENGINE.—A new type of express goods engine has just been completed at the plant works of the Great Northern Railway at Doncaster, to the design of the company's chief locomotive engineer, Mr. H. N. Gresley. The engine is remarkable for the size of its boiler, the barrel of which has a diameter of 6ft, which is the largest boiler diameter of any locomotive in this country. The engine is also distinctive by reason of being a three-cylinder locomotive instead of two.

CHALLENGE CUPS

THE LUCAS CRICKET AND RACQUET CUPS

These two silver cups were bequeathed to the College as 'Perpetual Challenge Prizes' by F. M. Lucas (Cotton House, 1872-7), of Warnham Court. Horsham, who died at Surat, India, Nov. 7, 1887. 'Keep straight and fear nought' is engraved on both cups, and on his tombstone. The Cricket Cup is held by the winning House, and the Racquet Cup by the best racquet player, of each year.

The Cricket Cup took the place of the old House Cup in the year 1888.

THE VANS-AGNEW FOOTBALL CUP

This silver-gilt challenge cup was presented to the College by some old Marlburian friends of J. D. Vans-Agnew (Littlefield, 1872-6), who died at Albany, West Australia, Dec. 6, 1889, and is held by the winning House of each year.

It took the place of the old House Cup in the year 1890.

THE POLLOCK ATHLETIC SHIELD

This shield, to be held by the House that secures the highest aggregate marks in the sports, was presented to the College in 1890 by the Rev. B. Pollock (Assistant Master M.C. 1886-98), afterwards Master of Wellington.

THE CURREY CUP

This was presented by subscription to the College in memory of Frederick Innes Currey (M.C. 1861-6), the founder of the Nomads Football Club, who died in 1896. It was awarded in 1897 and 1898 by a competition intended to encourage place and drop kicking. Since 1899 this Cup has taken the place of the old House Cup for Fives.

THE HOBLYN HOCKEY CUP

This silver challenge cup was presented to the College by C. D. Hoblyn (M.C. 1860-3) in the year 1894, and is held by the winning House of each year.

THE BURDETT SWIMMING CUP

This silver challenge cup was presented to the College by Sir H. C. Burdett, K.C.B., in 1896, and is held by the winning House of each year.

THE LUCAS GYMNASIUM SHIELD

This shield was bequeathed to the College by Herbert Thomas Lucas (M.C. 1872-5), who died Sept. 10, 1895.

It took the place of the old House Cup in the year 1895. The original cup was bought by the Race Committee in 1868.

THE FERGUSSON STEEPLECHASE CUP

This silver cup was presented to the College by an Old Marlburian in 1900, in memory of Lieut. G. C. D. Fergusson, Rifle Brigade (M.C. 1888-92), who fell in a sortie from Ladysmith, Natal, on Dec. 11, 1899.

It is a challenge cup for the School Steeplechase.

THE COBB SINGING CUP

This silver cup was presented to the College by G. F. Cobb (M.C. 1849-57) in 1884, and is awarded each year to the House that produces the best glee, and is engraved 'Cantoribus d. d., G. F. Cobb, O.M. 1872.'

THE HOUSE SHOOTING CUP

This cup was presented to the M.C.V.R.C. in 1868 by the Old Marlburians at the Universities. Three members from each House compete annually, and the highest aggregate wins the cup.

THE MONTHLY CUP

This cup was presented by Mr. Richard Hunter, in November, 1868, 'for the encouragement of good rifle practice.' The competition is held each month at the usual ranges, and the corps awards a small prize to the individual holder for the current month.

THE COMMON ROOM CUP

This cup was presented in 1866 by members of Common Room. The competition is held annually at three ranges, and the highest aggregate wins the cup. The original cup was presented to E. F. Coates, who won it three years in succession, and the present cup is the gift of his father, J. Coates, Esq.

CHALLENGE CUPSTHE FARRAR CUP

This cup was given in 1871 by Dr. Farrar, Master of Marlborough. It is won by the highest aggregate score on three days at two ranges.

THE RIFLE CORPS HOUSE SHIELD

This is awarded annually to the House which trains the best section at drill. It was purchased by the Cadet Corps in 1889.

THE HUNTER CUP

This was presented in 1869 by Mr. Richard Hunter, Member of Council, and it is shot for each year by Winchester and Marlborough.

THE MARLBOROUGH AND WELLINGTON CUP

This cup was presented in 1889 by Major D. C. W. Lysons (M.C. 1869-73) and by Major Walker, Old Wellingtonian, to be shot for between Marlborough and Wellington. When the cup was presented, the names of the winners for the previous six years were inscribed upon it, so that it might be a complete record of the results of the matches.

THE MARLBOROUGH AND CLIFTON CUP

This cup is shot for annually by Marlborough and Clifton, but the donor is unknown. It is probable that it was purchased by joint subscriptions from the respective school corps.

There is similar obscurity about the original cricket and football cups; these appear to have been provided from school subscriptions.

THE BELL TROPHY

This bronze statuette of St. Michael (designed by E. Roscoe Mullins, O.M.) was presented in 1903 by the Rev. Canon G. C. Bell, Master of Marlborough, to be won by the House which obtains most distinction in Scholarships, Prizes, &c.

THE OLD MARLBURIAN SCHOLARSHIPS

Trustees.

ARCHIBALD HANBURY, Esq.
T. H. CARSON, Esq., K.C.
W. H. MADDEN, Esq.

Honorary Secretary.

S. T. FISHER, Esq., 16 Old Queen Street, Westminster, S.W.

The Old Marlburian Scholarships were founded in accordance with some resolutions which were passed at a meeting of Old Marlburians held in London on January 29, 1861, and the rules relating to them have since been amended at meetings held on November 15, 1871, and July 25, 1877.

The following are some of the principal Rules relating to the Scholarships :—

1. Donations and annual subscriptions shall be collected from Old Marlburians and applied to the maintenance of Scholarships to be called the Old Marlburian Scholarships.
2. Not more than half a guinea shall be accepted from one person as an annual subscription ; and whenever any larger sum is contributed, half a guinea shall be considered to be a subscription, and the rest a donation.
3. There shall be three Old Marlburian Scholarships, of which one, herein referred to as 'The Classical Old Marlburian Scholarship,' shall be open to all members of the School who are under the age of nineteen years on the 1st day of January preceding the election ; and two, herein referred to as 'The Modern Old Marlburian Scholarships,' shall be open to all members of the School who are under the age of eighteen years on that day.
4. The Classical Old Marlburian Scholarship shall be of the value of £50 per annum. It shall be tenable for three years, and an election to it shall be held in every third year.
5. The Modern Old Marlburian Scholarships shall be each of the value of £25 per annum. They shall be tenable for two years, and an election to one of them shall be held every year.
6. The Scholarships shall be tenable at Oxford or Cambridge, or at Woolwich, or at such other place of education as the Master of Marlborough College for the time being may approve.
7. Every contributor, who has at any time given contributions to the amount of ten guineas, shall be deemed a life subscriber.

The amount of Stock now standing in the names of the Trustees is £1,150 Great Eastern Railway 4 per cent. Consolidated Irredeemable Guaranteed Stock. The sums annually paid to scholars amount in all to £100.

Contributions to the Fund are received by the Hon. Sec., S. T. Fisher, Esq., 16 Old Queen Street, Westminster, S.W., and by the Bursar of Marlborough College.

Old Marlburians, intending to subscribe annually to the Fund, are informed that the most convenient method of so doing is to give a standing order to their bankers for the payment annually of the amount desired to the account of the Trustees with the Bank of England (head office). The title of such account is Archibald Hanbury and others.

All contributions should be paid in before the end of November in every year.

A list of 'Old Marlburian' Scholars will be found on page 627.

THE MARLBURIAN CLUB

President.

SIR E. C. K. OLLIVANT, K.C.I.E.

Honorary Secretary.

S. T. FISHER, Esq., 16 Old Queen Street, Westminster, S.W.

This Club, which was established in the year 1884, has been strengthened by the amalgamation with it of the Marlborough Nomads Football Club and the Marlborough Blues Cricket Club, and all Old Marlburians as well as the past and present Masters and Assistant Masters of the College are eligible to become Members.

The objects of the Club, as defined by the Rules, are:—

- (a) The promotion of mutual and friendly intercourse between Old Marlburians.
- (b) The organization of Old Marlburians for the purposes of Cricket, Football, or other games.
- (c) The assistance by pecuniary aid or otherwise of necessitous Old Marlburians, and such other benevolent purposes in the interests of Old Marlburians as the Club think proper.
- (d) Generally the furtherance of the interests and prosperity of Marlborough College and its past and present Members.

It is the custom of the Club for the Members to dine together two or three times in the course of the year.

It is obvious that the success of the Club depends on its popularity. If the great proportion of Old Marlburians would join, the funds would speedily become so large that no deserving Institution connected with the School would appeal in vain for support.

The Subscription to the Club is £8 8s. for life, or 10s. 6d. a year. Members absent from the United Kingdom for more than six months in any current year are not liable for that year's subscription. Eight Annual Subscriptions of 10s. 6d. each constitute Life Membership.

The Club now numbers over 2,000 Members, and the invested funds of the Club consist of £1,000 lent on Mortgage, £1,249 18s. 11d. 2½ per cent. Stock, and £66 Queensland Stock.

Application to join the Club should be made to the Secretary, S. T. FISHER, Esq., at 16 Old Queen Street, Westminster; or to either the Football or Cricket Secretaries:—

THE MARLBOROUGH MISSION

The Marlborough Mission was founded in the year 1881. The Bishop of Bedford (Dr. Walsham How) addressed a meeting of the school, and described the spiritual destitution and general poverty of a large mass of artisans, labourers, and their families dwelling in houses which had sprung up in Tottenham through the institution by Act of Parliament of workmen's trains on the Great Eastern branch line to Enfield. A district was assigned by the Bishop to the clergyman fixed upon by Marlborough, and the boys and masters guaranteed a stipend of £150, to be augmented by the East London Church Fund to £200.

Large congregations and Sunday schools and classes were gathered together by the labours of the Mission-curate in hired premises, and in 1885 a site for a church and vicarage was obtained. On May 9, 1887, the first stone of the church of St. Mary was laid by H.R.H. the Duchess of Albany, in the presence of the Master, several members of the Council, Old Marlburians, and many thousands of the people of the populous locality. The sermon was preached by Archdeacon Farrar.

On April 28, 1887, the church was consecrated by Bishop How (the preacher being Dean Bradley), and has ever since been greatly appreciated by the people for whom it was intended, and by whom it was partly built. The total cost, including site, was £10,000, of which not less than £3,400 came from Marlburian sources.

The Vicarage House was next erected; of the requisite funds, £1,500 were contributed by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and of the balance nearly £500 was derived from a bazaar and fête at Marlborough on Prize Day, 1889.

In November, 1887, the district was legally constituted by an Order in Council, and endowed with £200 per annum by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners; the Old Marlburian Mission-curate, the Rev. Edward Floyer Noel Smith, M.A. (O.M.), becoming the first vicar. Since he, as head of the Mission, was thus no longer dependent for his stipend on Marlborough, his colleague's stipend was henceforth mainly provided by the College offertories. An additional endowment of £100 was secured from the Commissioners by Mr. Smith's raising and presenting to them £1,000; he then undertook to relieve Marlborough of £60 of his colleague's stipend, that this sum might be devoted annually to the other needs of the Mission, especially to a Workmen's Club and to mission-rooms and furniture.

Accordingly in the years 1890-3, £2,400 was raised for a building amongst 2,000 poor living nearly a mile distant from the Mission Church, and in the years 1896-1900 £5,000 was raised for a similar building near the church. H.R.H. the Duchess of Albany laid the stone in April, 1899, and the Bishop of Richmond (O.M.) dedicated it in October. No debt is now left upon the building, which comprises a hall to hold 850 people; class-rooms; workmen's club, which has already over 150 members; a caretaker's house with small bowling-green and quiet ground behind.

The present needs of the Mission are to raise £650 more to provide a Church

Lads' Brigade Hall, a Gymnasium, and Sunday School at the north-east end of the district. This will save £56 now annually spent in hiring a Board School for the largest of the three Sunday Schools. Further to enable other work among boys to be undertaken; and lastly to secure a few more annual subscribers for the Old Marlburian Curacy Fund and the Church Lads' Brigade. All other parochial work, charities, and church expenses are provided by the Mission congregation. No less important is it that some Old Marlburians should render personal help either on Sundays in the schools, or on week-day evenings with the Boys' Brigade and the entertainments.

The annual sum guaranteed by Marlborough has been reduced to £60 for one assistant curate's stipend, and £40 for other objects. About ninety Old Marlburians subscribe annually to the stipend of a second assistant curate, and it is hoped to increase their numbers, for while the present population of our district numbers 7,500, for whom three clergy are barely sufficient, there is market-gardening ground on which at least another 5,000 of the labouring class will within a few years be housed.

Many Old Marlburians have aided the Mission by preaching for it, by parcels of old clothes, hospital and convalescent letters, and some by entertaining parties from it, e.g. the choir, or mothers' meeting.

Some of the results of the Mission have been very remarkable, e.g. the spirit, energy, and liberality of the Mission congregation; and the excellence of the buildings. Few clergy can have presented so many adults for Confirmation—422 out of 1,522 candidates—while the annual deposits of the poor in the various agencies to assist thrift exceed £1,200.

Further information may be obtained from the Secretary to the College Mission Fund, M. H. Gould, Esq., Cotton House, Marlborough, or from the head of the Mission, Rev. E. F. Noel Smith, Marlborough Mission Clergyhouse, Tottenham.
